Some freakshakes contain over 35 teaspoons of sugar.

That’s nearly 6 times a child’s daily limit. It’s a scandal. We desperately need more legislation on nutrition labelling when eating out. Legislation with teeth.